

- Introduction
- Benefits
- Fees and payment
- Apply to become a member

The benefits of becoming a therapist

- The opportunity to become part of the biggest and newest growing trend for on line face to face Video therapy by becoming a member of T.O.S.P.S.
- Your own dedicated profile page with cyber office facilities- to promote your services. This will include your own private calendar, details of your bookings and your payments and history, blogs and note area.
- The opportunity to provide therapy to anyone, most places in the world.
- Be able to open your customer base up to a new clients base.
- Upload a photograph of yourself to our home page gallery of online therapists for maximum visibility.
- All the Benefits of using leading edge technology to enable you to provide online therapy without the need for you to purchase expensive equipment. Our video monitor is robust and trouble free.
- Be part of a progressive company which has developed a unique selling platform to display therapists that are online with the aid of our unique online button.
- You will never be just a name in a directory again. If you are online and available to give a therapy session, your presence will be easily visible. People can seek you and speak to you without irksome form filling.
- As a provider of online therapy you can work from home/office or any place you have access to an internet connection.
- You can save on all the costs of hiring a office and all of the financial costs this would entail. Perfect for independent counsellors and therapists.
- Work at any time day or night 24/7/365, with the opportunity to work inside and outside of normal business hours.
- Only pay a year membership fee of £50.00 and a small administration fee per session.
- Worldwide audience sought for you.
- Advertisement of your services twenty four hours a day.
- You get to set your own competitive price list.
- Instant real time payment as soon as a booking is made.
- The ability to offer instant therapy sessions to our visitors.
- Free use of the merchandise display case in our merchandise shop.
- Any events you wish to promote can be advertised with us.
- Continuous page analytics of your web page with us.
- Free advice from the data received from our on going analytical gathering to assist you on ways to make your therapy room more competitive.
- Potential to grow your business on a global scale.
- Capacity to increase your business profitability.
- Your own dedicated online therapy room within the site.
- A Private monitor for your video feeds.
- Use of private and public calendar for your appointments.
- Private blogs and shared blogs.
- Facilities to enable you to facilitate block bookings online.
- Any articles you have publish can will be displayed on your private page.
- Opportunity for you to write your own professional essays on your speciality and have us publish them on our site.
- Complete application process can be done online and you can be trading and ready for business within a few hours.
- Our website will automatic download to iPad, iPhone or any smart phone allowing you to provide therapy any place any time.
- Your clients can have a note saving area in their personal members area, that they can refer back to after your session with them is completed.
- Secure merchant payment taken on your behalf via Paypal.
- Be promoted on our facebook pages, Twitter, LinkedIn and Google+ and many more.

Offline - Leave a message